

eBridge Connections Continues to Expand Accounting Integration in the Cloud

BURLINGTON, Ontario [April 29th, 2011] - eBridge Connections announced today that it has expanded its EDI, eCommerce and CRM connections by 10% since January 1, 2011 on their cloud integration platform. With integration support for over 40 accounting/ERP packages, including Microsoft Dynamics, Sage, Intuit QuickBooks and many others, eBridge Connections makes a critical step towards providing best in class Software as a Service (SaaS) solutions to the SMB marketplace.

Most recently eBridge added the following connections to the cloud platform:

- Coast Guard Exchange 4030
- Caterpillar 3030
- Fred Meyer 5010 VICS
- HubSoft
- 3dcart
- Salesforce.com
- ChannelAdvisor

“At eBridge, the release of connections happens on a weekly basis.” said Mark Gladwish, Product Manager at eBridge. “That’s the great thing about software as a service; each time the Community adds a connection, everyone gets to leverage it for their business if they need it.”

To date, eBridge Connections has handled over 6,500,000 transactions; most recently achieving a threshold of over 149,000 in one week. With hundreds of businesses already relying on the integration platform for their daily transactions, it has become a vital backbone for North American e-business. A large part of its success can be attributed to its universality, which offers support for an ever-growing number of accounting packages, eCommerce carts, and EDI connections to hundreds of businesses and hubs. This list will continue to grow as new users introduce systems and businesses that they wish to connect to.
